	O.M. Harris	Lieutenant		"On Column in Hekpoort Valley June to September 1901" I recommend Lt. Harris for very good service while in the field with me, commanding a section of his Battery. Recommendation from Colonel H. Thompson: Had command of two Guns under me. Showed great presence of mind in action on 28th June when his guns came under very hot and close fire from the Boers not 1000 yards away (not previously located owing to faulty scouting). Serious crisis (was) promptly averted with the quick way he moved his guns into action - a good horsemaster.

10th Company RGA	H.F. McKenzie	Lieutenant		For good service in command of a mobile 12pdr gun.	This Officer has commanded a horsed 12pdr gun for over a year, and during that time has kept his command in a most efficient state. He has never failed to be able to do with his gun whatever he was called on to carry out, and I have been able to leave this mobile gun in his charge in the confidence that he is to be depended upon. His command was reported on by Lt. Col. Simpson RGA on July 1901 to be in a thoroughly efficient state. He is now at Koenigsberg, Newcastle sub-district.
	A.E. James	Sergeant	96908	Good work as NCO in charge of 12 pdr (Naval) gun on Honeymoon Hill	Since awarded DCM - LG - 27/09/01 On Honeymoon Hill since 07/09/00 Promoted Sergeant 27/07/98 Recommended by Captain Davidson 10 Co. E.D. R.G.A. for D.C. Medal in list called for by Lord Roberts. This NCO has been practically in charge of his Gun as his O.C. was 2 miles away at other end of the Hill and latterly several miles away on another Hill.
	E. Doggrell	Sergeant	9251	For good work as Pay Sergeant	Has been Pay Sergeant since 13/05/98 Has been most useful to me and acted as Company Q.M.S. for 5 months. A thoroughly good NCO well deserving of mention.
	B.H. Trim	Sergeant	66659	For general good work especially in connection with signalling and range taking.	Promoted Sergeant 03/05/99 Has been most useful in his knowledge of signalling and field range finding. Has superintended the Company signallers and instructed range takers in addition to his ordinary duties.
	W.W. Pope	Sergeant	12214	For good work as No.1 of 4.7" Gun detachment as Corporal and Sergeant.	Promoted Sergeant - 20/03/01 Was Senior NCO of gun detachment at Talana Hill Dundee for some months after his No.1 "went sick". A smart, intelligent and energetic NCO well deserving mention.

J.G. Bates	C.Q.M.S.	1536	General Good Service during the War	Has been of great assistance as Pay Sergeant, No.1 of a horsed Gun and quarter master Sergeant. Always hard working and never daunted by any difficulties. I recommend him strongly for promotion to Warrant rank. Awarded DCM - LG 27/09/01
R.G. Wilde	Sergeant	65021	General good service, especially during the trying time when in field in the wet in the Eastern Transvaal in Feb-March 1901	As No.1 of a horsed gun, Sergeant Wilde has proved himself to be a most efficient field artilleryman. On the field in February he was always reliable , never at a loss even under the most discouraging circumstances. Well worthy of reward.
T. Sullivan	Machinery Gunner	13625	General good service as a Gunner and in his Trade	A man ready to turn his hand to any job. Of great skill in his trade , he has invented small improvements connected with the machinery and carriage of the gun, which have proved very useful. Has also become a fair shoeing smith as well as a carriage smith.
G.H. Davis	Sergeant	146002	Good service as No.1 of a horsed gun on the field in Eastern Transvaal Feb-March 1901	Has become a very effective No.1 of one of the horsed guns. A good horse-master, excellent disciplinarian always at work. On the wet field was resourceful, cheerful and a great help to me.

66th Company R.G.A.	W.H. Thornhill	Captain		On attachment from Edinburgh Artillery Militia I would specially wish to bring this officer's name to notice for excellent work performed by him in assisting to get away the ammunition wagons of the 4.7 inch Gun at the action at Nooitgedacht - under heavy musketry fire - on the 13th December, 1900. Shortly before the retirement was ordered, the bullocks stampeded and the native drivers bolted. Great difficulties had therefore to be overcome, and Captain Thornhill on that day was of the greatest assistance to me. On other occasions too he proved himself a useful officer under fire. He has been mentioned in despatches.
	J. Johnson	Sergeant	43426	For Systematic good work with the 4.7 inch Gun, of which he was in charge, at the action at Hekpoort - under General Clements - on 19th December 1900; and on several other occasions. Also later on under General Sir John Dartnell.
	J. Johnson	Sergeant	43426 D.C.M.	Heckport - Nooitgedacht, saving the 4.7" Gun - mention by General Clements
	J.H. Friar	Sergeant	66245	For continual good work covering a period of nearly a year. At Nooitgedacht, and in other actions, he rendered excellent service. A most deserving N.C. Officer.
	J.H. Friar	Sergeant	66245 D.C.M.	Heckport - Nooitgedacht, saving the 4.7" Gun - mention by General Clements
	L. Earith	Gunner	89366	For Good work in various actions.
	L. Earith	Gunner	89366 Mention	Heckport - Nooitgedacht, saving the 4.7" Gun - mention by General Clements
Durham Company RGA	J. Gowans	Captain		A hard working and willing officer; has improved very considerably during the last two months, and is now of great assistance to me. - OC Zululand Garrison Adj. and Staff Officer to OC Zululand.

	James O'Neill	C.S.M.	C.S.M. O'Neill has done his work in an exemplary manner and has been of the greatest assistance in maintaining the discipline and efficiency of the men under my command.	I have noticed this NCO since taking over the Zululand troops in February 1901. He is smart, hardworking and intelligent.
RGA Pretoria	W.G. Bedford	Captain	The ADR Armoured Trains report on Captain Bedford: "Extremely well, reported the OC of his Train. He is keen and experienced and exceptionally good at picking up the range accurately. Has shelled the enemy on many occasions, and by his accurate shooting the enemy's convoy was driven off. On the 10th Aug 1901 while No.1 Armoured Train engaged the main body"	Attached to RGA Pretoria from 22/04/01 and doing duty in forts, since then and now in command of 12pdr Q7 Gun on No. 17 Armoured Train. Served in South Africa since 25th March 1901. Home unit - The Cornwall and Devon Miners Militia
	W. Jickell	Lieutenant	Both good and keen officers. The ADR Armoured Trains reports of them: "They are keen and good officers. Both have shelled the enemy on several occasions, and in addition have shown considerable ability in scouting with the Armoured Train Mounted Scouts.	As RSM and afterwards Troop Leader of the 4th New Zealand Regt. Rough Riders. Attached to RGA at Pretoria from 14/04/01. In command of 12pdr Q7 Gun on No.2 Armoured Train from July 1901 to April 1902. Served in South Africa since 22nd April 1900
	F.H.P. O'Connor	Lieutenant	Both good and keen officers. The ADR Armoured Trains reports of them: "They are keen and good officers.
